Homestead Happenings ~ November 2026

Our second annual Fall Festival takes place on November 14, 2026, 1P-6P, at Field Manor, and we hope you will join us! This year's band is one of Brevard's favorites, St. Johns Wood. We'll have food trucks, a 50/50 raffle, vendors, non-profits, and a basket raffle. We'd like to thank our sposnors, Glover, Orndorf & Flanagan, Nisbet Realty, Frank Rogers-Witte, and Island Title and beer sponsor, Hidden Level Brewery. Want to learn more about this event, the vendors, the food trucks, and to purchase tickets? Click the image above.

Afternoon Tea at Field Manor

Field Manor has been hosting Afternoon Teas for close to four years. The concept was created as an opportunity to visit with friends, enjoy tasty teas, savory sandwiches, and lovely baked sweets in a historic house museum. The teas take place in our parlor (seats six) and our dining room (seats eight).

Our fall-themed October tea sold out quickly and a good time was had by all!

Teas resume in 2027. January's and April's Afternoon Tea have both sold out. Make your reservations now!

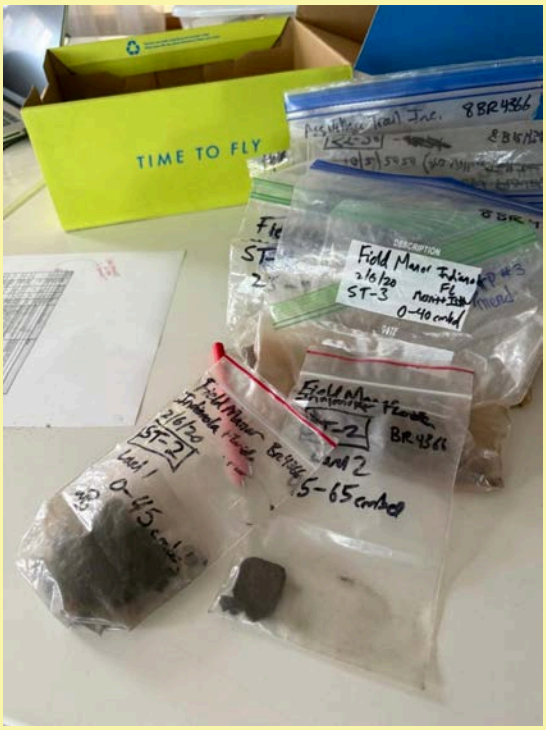

Native American Month

November is Native American Month and the purpose of this observance is to honor the history, the diverse cultures, traditions, languages, and contributions of American Indian and Alaskan Native peoples. In 2020, Field Manor began a Phase I survey, with 47 shovel tests performed and did not need further testing. The site has been recorded with the state of Florida's Master Site File. We recovered St. Johns Plain, spanning a 700 year time period, ending before European contact. Recently, we cleaned the sherds, and will perform analysis in 2027. We currently have some of those artifacts on display.

Locally, you can support Native American events or museums by attending Native Rhythms Festival at Wickham Park or visit the Brevard Museum of History in Cocoa. At the state level, Armchair Archaeologist!

This old homestead yields mysteries that are fun to investigate!

Found in the packing house and not the kitchen, this wooden box, decorated with paper images, had a specific function to keep its contents in one piece.

What do you think the box held?

Email Korinn with the correct answer to win a tour for two of the museum.
